Four Criscuoli Paintings Win Awards International Juried Art Competition Features Paintings by Joseph Criscuoli

Laurel, MD – Four paintings by artist Joseph Criscuoli were among 91 works selected for placement in the 7th Colors International Juried Art Competition sponsored by Grey Cube Gallery.

“Composition 7229”, a 30“ x 24“ painting completed in 1980, “Comet”, measuring 24” x 20” and completed in 2004, “Nautilus”, measuring 20” x 16” and completed in 2006, and “Eclipse”, measuring 28” x 22” and completed in 2024, each won placement into the exhibition.

Grey Cube Gallery indicated that the show encompassed a range of artistic styles and mediums (acrylic, oil, watercolor, digital art, collage, photography, colored pencil, ink). Each submission was judged based on the following elements of artistic expression: originality and quality of art, overall design, creativity, interpretation of the theme, demonstration of artistic ability and usage of medium. Out of all entries, 91 artworks were shortlisted for inclusion in the show. The competition attracted entries from many countries across the world: Switzerland, Australia, Canada, USA, Ireland, Germany, UK, Hong Kong, Netherlands, Denmark, South Korea, Puerto Rico, Japan and Hungary. This exhibition of winning artwork is on display at:

All four winning entries can be seen at the website www.JosephCriscuoli.com. An attractive and expanded “Portfolio” of original paintings is accompanied by a short statement by the artist about each work. The website also offers a way for visitors to safely and securely purchase items from the expanded catalog of new paintings in the form of Prints and Note Cards available to the public. And unique “progression of the painting” videos are also presented on several pages.
